The Liturgical gifts today are given by Jane & Steve Cook, in celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary on 12th June. They would like to thank everyone for their cards & good wishes.

The PCC discussed a report on our organ which highlighted that many electrical parts need replacing and we are hoping to raise funds to do the most urgent work. If you felt able to assist, any donations, small or great, would be most appreciated.

Walsingham Cell Service and BBQ is TONIGHT at 6pm in the Church grounds or Hall if weather inclement. All pilgrims are welcome to attend cost £2.

Father God, you sent your Son, Jesus to give up everything for us: may the gifts we bring, whether great or small, be the very best that we can offer and a sign of our grateful love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Refreshments in the hall after the service on Sunday is an important part of St George's life. Could you possibly spare the time to join the band of volunteers who prepare and serve the drinks? I think it's quite fun saying a cheery hello to so many friendly faces at the hatches. You would be shown how to do it and there are lots of good mentors. Please speak to me if you can help. Thank you. Richard!

St George's community cinema needs a projectionist!! There is presently no one to do the video sound for either the August or December films. Although it might appear daunting, the kit is pretty straightforward. If you've set up basic domestic kit, like a blu ray player and soundbar you can handle this. There is still time for a demonstration / dry run at the July event. Please see Richard if you can help.

Seal watching trip on July 21st at 10.15am £22 per person, one space left. If interested please speak to Sue Hodgins Confirmation sessions: 11:15am after Sung Eucharist on Sunday mornings. Further information from Fr Charles or Rev Sandra.

Horndean Amateur Theatre will be performing their latest production, "Madness, Murder and Monkey Business", on Thu 9th, Fri 10th and Sat 11th July, at 7.30pm in St George's church hall. This production consists of three one-act plays, covering an alternative take on Hamlet, an academic murder mystery, and what you don't see at the zoo! Tickets are £8, available on the door, or in advance at www.horndeanamdram.com.
