Alice Pitney's funeral will take place at The Oaks Crematorium on Friday 31st July at 11.30. All are welcome to attend the Oaks and afterwards at the Garden room at the Emsworth Hotel. Please let Revd Sandra know if you are thinking of attending. Also, the family would like informal dress – bright colours and no flowers, donations to the Cinnamon Trust.

The PCC discussed a report on our organ which highlighted that many electrical parts need replacing and we are hoping to raise funds to do the most urgent work. If you felt able to assist, any donations, small or great, would be most appreciated.

The search for a mums and toddlers leader has resumed. If you know anyone who might help the parish to restart this valuable and appreciated activity, please encourage them to make contact with any of the PCC or Churchwardens.

Father God, you sent your Son, Jesus to give up everything for us: may the gifts we bring, whether great or small, be the very best that we can offer and a sign of our grateful love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Refreshments in the hall after the service on Sunday is an important part of St George's life. Could you possibly spare the time to join the band of volunteers who prepare and serve the drinks? I think it's quite fun saying a cheery hello to so many friendly faces at the hatches. You would be shown how to do it and there are lots of good mentors. Please speak to me if you can help. Thank you. Richard!

St George's community cinema needs a projectionist!! There is presently no one to do the video sound for either the August or December films. Although it might appear daunting, the kit is pretty straightforward. If you've set up basic domestic kit, like a blu ray player and soundbar you can handle this. There is still time for a demonstration / dry run at the July event. Please see Richard if you can help.

Confirmation sessions are taking place at 11:15am after the Sung Eucharist on Sunday mornings at Church. For further information please see Fr Charles or Rev Sandra.

Coffee after 8am Eucharist: at the Exchange next Sunday, 19th July, and on the third Sunday each month. All welcome.
