FAS
FUNERAL ASSOCIATION
SOUTH EAST

Welcome from the Chairman....

Welcome to the eighth year of the Waterlooville Music Festival. The aim of this week is to bring music into St. George's Church and into the centre of Waterlooville, for the whole community to enjoy. This year is no exception. Together with Waterlooville Business Association's "Market Place Music" on the first day of the Festival, you are invited to over 50 concerts, featuring soloists, choirs, instrumental groups and whole bands.

It's really good that once again local schools are taking part in the Festival. Students are performing at lunchtimes and in the afternoons and classes are coming to the special school workshops featuring hand bell ringing and a morning devoted to recorder instruction. Among the eight days of music the Festival welcomes for the first time this year The Choir Company and Il Campane as well as welcoming back the Hampshire Police Band and AChaired Taste. On the first Saturday a choir comprising children from a number of local schools is performing - Voices United. It's particularly good to welcome the children back as the choir is sponsored by Waterlooville Music Festival as part of its aim to encourage music among young people. Two completely new events this year are Saturday's Dragon Jazz Club with two jazz bands playing and Friday's Folk and Ale evening featuring Threepenny Bit and Portsmouth Shanty Men. On both evenings there'll be a real ale bar supported by one of the local breweries, Bowman's.

The Festival Organisers are greatly indebted to local businesses and councils for their continued support, without which Waterlooville Music Festival could not continue. The individual sponsors are listed at the end of this programme, but special appreciation is given to Allmobility of Waterlooville and Keys News of Highfield Parade. Both shops have again hosted the Festival Ticket Offices. Please support them both and the other sponsors whenever possible. As usual Havant Borough Council has been a great supporter of Waterlooville Music Festival and the organisers express their appreciation.

Thank you for coming to this year's Waterlooville Music Festival. All the monies taken during the week go towards the cost of staging the Festival - both this year and next. It's always on the second full week of June and the 2014 programme is already being compiled - June 14th to 22nd. If you would like to keep up to date with the various groups and individuals being booked, please click on www.waterloovillemusicfestival.org.uk

I hope you enjoy this week's Festival and that you'll come again next year!

OOH MADAM!

Robbie Rich Jazz Quartet

Saxophone player Robbie Rich has been entertaining audiences for 25 years. Whether it's the sultry tenor sax or the charismatic clarinet this multi-instrumentalist takes great pride in finding exactly the right musical vibe for his audience. World cup winner Alan Ball was storming in his praise for Robbie's rendition of 'Over The Rainbow' at his daughter's celebrity wedding.

Robbie has played in all the top London hotels (International function bands China Grove, The Mix with whom he has toured), and been part of top rhythm and blues outfit Something For The Weekend for 10 years (t.v. and radio appearances, celebrity parties including George Michael); also numerous residencies with Jacuzzi Jazz duo (Southampton Boat Show, Rosies and Pebbles wine bars) and been part of Pink Floyd Tribute band Perfect Alibi. He has also worked with Spike Edney (5th member of Queen).

Always tuneful, Robbie uses the best equipment (Bose speakers) blows a pair of Conn saxophones, silver Yamaha flute and an oldle English Artley clarinet. He never arrives at a gig with less than a thousand songs at his disposal. And most importantly – for any sax player – he wears a hat!

JOLLY GOOD SHOW!

The Scratch Choir is directed by Brian Moles, Director of Music at St Mary's Portsea. Brian is a freelance music teacher, performer and composer.

A native of Hampshire, Brian studied music at Royal Holloway, University of London, gaining both a bachelors and masters degree, and holding the positions of both an organ and choral scholar, and for a while acting director of the Chapel Choir.

After a brief spell as assistant organist at Cardiff Metropolitan Cathedral, Brian became a lay clerk at St Alban's Cathedral, whilst maintaining a busy career teaching, performing and composing. He continues to teach and compose, as well as help in leading the government Sing Up! campaign at the Anglican Cathedral. He is a founder member and musical director of Spezzati, a chamber choir of young voices based in the south-east of England.

His compositions have been described as exciting and accessible, and he is happy to write for any genre. He has won several competitions, and is regularly being commissioned to write new works. Recently he has had works performed in London, and in various cathedrals and minsters, including St Albans, Canterbury, Truro and Beverley. Drop, Drop Slow Tears, a work for unaccompanied mixed choir, has recently been published by Boosey and Hawkes in their publication, Calmo.

THE BAND OF THE HAMPSHIRE CONSTABULARY

Director of Music: Captain Pete Curtis BMus(Hons) PGDip LRSM AMusTCL RM

Hampshire Police Band has been a major highlight at Waterlooville Music Festival before, and we are delighted to be welcoming this hugely accomplished and popular band to the festival once again this year.

Established in 1895, and now one of the few remaining police bands in the country, the Band of the Hampshire Constabulary is based at the Police Training Headquarters at Netley, Southampton. Its members are drawn from serving and retired staff of the Force, both police, support and from family members of the same. The band also welcomes players from outside the Force family where additional instrumentation is needed.

All the band members are volunteers and the band largely operates within its own resources. It is a military-style concert band consisting of woodwind, brass and percussion players. Its wide repertoire ranges over marches and overtures through classical pieces to selections from popular shows.

Musical Director: Spence Bundy

Themes from the Television Adverts
Match the music to the Advert!

The Portsmouth Philharmonia was set up in March 2009 by a small group of amateur musicians wanting to rehearse together on a regular basis. Since then the orchestra has increased in size to around 30 regular members.

This superb orchestra featured at the Waterlooville Music Festival last year with a wonderful selection of well-known classics, and we are delighted to be having them return this year for another enthralling and exciting performance of familiar pieces from the world of television advertising.

THE CHOIR COMPANY

Musical Director: Gary Jordan

The Choir Company - a talented group of vocalists based in Farnham and Petersfield who simply love to sing modern music, Rock, Soul, Indie, R&B... Thursday evening is going to be a real hoot...!

GARY JORDAN, Musical Director

As a musical director and vocal coach, Gary has worked with many well known faces from the world of TV and London's West End. He has coached and musically directed several shows in and around London including Annie, Little Shop Of Horrors, Footloose and Honk and has starred in numerous West End productions as well as national and international tours of The Wizard Of Oz, Singing In The Rain and Aladdin. Gary can currently be heard as the voices of both Tang and Granite in CBeebies' children's TV programme 'ZingZillas.'

also presenting KOPANANG

Kopanang is a small a cappella group, formed in 2010, with a repertoire including South African songs and Negro spirituals. European hymns were brought to Southern Africa where many became popular and evolved through local musical influences. Musical traditions from the west coast of Africa were taken to the Americas via the slave trade and the slaves developed new musical forms, including spirituals. These spirituals, heavily influenced by the Bible, have in turn become popular in Europe.

Past events include performing for the local Caribbean Islands Association for Black History Month and a concert highlighting the issue of modern day slavery and human trafficking.

FOLK AND ALE NIGHT

Hampshire's Leading Folk and Ceilidh Band

THREEPENNY BIT

A young and vibrant addition to the folk scene, Threepenny Bit folk and ceilidh band was formed from an unlikely combination of student-types in Southampton in 2010. Consisting of suitcase percussion, fiddle, flute, guitar and clarinet, they play a wide range of Irish, English, Cornish, Breton and Scottish diddly-dee music with a hint of klezmer! Threepenny Bit set the trend for "Half Price Busking" in the Summer of 2011, when they embarked upon a busking campaign to spread folk music to the four corners of Southern England. This included playing at the Winchester Hat Fair, St Mary Bourne Festival, Sidmouth Folk Festival and obtaining a busking license for Covent Garden. Threepenny Bit recorded their debut album, Something, late 2011, and have just released their second album Cartography.

also presenting

PORTSMOUTH SHANTY MEN

The Portsmouth Shanty Men formed in 1978, at the request of the organisers of Christchurch Folk Festival after which it disbanded. A few years later the folk world had started to take a renewed interest in shanties, with artists such as Johnny Collins and Jim Mageean leading the way, and the Portsmouth Shanty Men were asked to reform for a concert of maritime music aboard ship, in this case the hulk of H.M.S. Foudrouyant in Portsmouth Harbour. Since that time, Britain has woken up to its proud Maritime Heritage and shanty singing is now seen as an integral part of any Maritime, as well as Folk Festival. They have appeared at Liverpool, Bristol, Swansea, Lancaster, Hull, Carrickfergus in Northern Ireland and Brest in Brittany as well as many folk festivals and folk clubs.
