JERUSALEM

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the Holy Lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among these dark satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds, unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand,
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant land.

RULE BRITANNIA

When Britain first, at Heaven's command
Arose from out the azure main,
Arose from, arose from out the azure main;
This was the charter, the charter of the Land
And Guardian Angels sang this strain:

Rule Britannia, Britannia rule the waves!
Britons never, ever, ever shall be slaves.

LAND OF HOPE AND GLORY

Land of Hope and Glory,
Mother of the Free,
How shall we extol thee,
who are born of thee?
Wider still and wider
shall thy bounds be set;
God who made thee mighty,
make thee mightier yet.
God who made thee mighty,
make thee mightier yet.

Meridian Wind Band

Two instrumental music teachers, Tim Norris and Tim Warren, formed the Meridian Wind Band in 1997. Their object is to produce an enjoyable atmosphere where musicians can share their love of music of all styles and perform to the highest possible standard.

The Meridian Wind Concert Band is based in Southampton and consists of professional musicians, teachers and students. They enjoy a varied repertoire ranging from the best of contemporary music through transcriptions of film and TV scores to the more conventional military band fare of marches, waltzes and overtures.

Don Lloyd,
Musical Director of the Meridian Wind Band

Don was born and raised in Bournemouth, his earliest musical recollections are the piano lessons given to him by his mother. His other main musical influence in his teenage years was the Bandmaster at Oakmead School for Boys, Courtney Bosanko. After leaving school, Don joined the Royal Marines School of Music at Deal, as a Bassoonist. He passed out from training a term early in December 1978, and was posted to Staff Band as Principal Bassoon. Don served with the Royal Marines Band Service for 32 years, rising to the rank of Warrant Officer (2) Bandmaster, concluding his career as the Chief Instructor Higher Training, at the Royal Marines School of Music, HMS Nelson. Whilst in the Royal Marines Band Service he served all over the world, the D-Day 60 celebrations and the closure of Hong Kong were just two of the highlights from a long and varied career.

Don passed the ATCL performers diploma in 1997 and gained his Associated Board Certificate of Teaching (CT ABRSM) in 2000. He was one of the first group of Royal Marine musicians to graduate with BMus(Hons) through Portsmouth University in 2001. Don gained the LRSM (conducting diploma) with distinction at the end of the Bandmasters' course in 2003.

Since leaving the Royal Marines Band Service Don has carved out a career as a music teacher and in 2008 was appointed as teacher of music at the Bourne Community College, Southbourne, West Sussex. Don then undertook the Graduate Teacher Programme and completed this in June 2009. Since then, Don has undertaken a number of high profile and demanding teaching appointments and currently teaches Music at St Catherine's School, Bramley, Guildford.
